Golden Bee Embroidery Wallpaper

This is not just any bee wallpaper. This is an image of brilliantly crafted embroidery by England-based artist Humayrah Bint Altaf. She stitches fabulously ornate insects using shimmering threads and metallic beads. She uses carefully paired patterns and colours that form wings, bodies, and even delicate feet. These honey bees could practically crawl off the wallpaper as they prepare to take flight. With Insect wings that look fibrous and veiny; these embroideries use bright, reflective materials that add a true sense of life to these insect interpretations.

As stunning as it is unique, this embroidery wallpaper will help tell a story. Whisking people away to a more gentle world.
