

BETHANY LINZ

Succulents Wallpaper

The Succulents Wallpaper design is inspired by the tamer type of Cacti. Often seen in home gardens, the bunched leaves look like flowers themselves, but when they bloom they take their beauty to a whole other level. The design was inspired when artist, Bethany Linz, was visiting Chile and traveled through the Atacama Desert. She saw these living sculptures decorate the landscape with different shapes, sizes and blooms. Her experience has led to this gorgeous cactus wallpaper design.

This large scale design spans two drops of wallpaper before it repeats. It is suitable for most living areas, covering the whole room or a feature wall. Choose from 6 stunning colourways including Sage, Steel Blue, & Green Beige.
